

How to: do punked-up eyeliner

KENZO AUTUMNWINTER 2012

A feline flick has been a classic look for eyes since the 1950s. For this season the French brand Kenzo squared the end, giving it a more punky edge.

Choose a liquid liner with a felt-tip applicator - much more user-friendly than fiddly pots and brushes. ESTEE LAUDER'S QUICK-THICK LINER (£20, esteelauder.co.uk) is perfect for the job, its extra-thick nib being manageable even for less-than-rock-steady hands. Draw a line starting in the middle of the upper lash line and head outwards, in a straight line, to the outer corner of the eye and extend to the edge of the socket. Fill in and thicken up the line to suit your mood, but don't worry about neatening the edges; that's what GIVENCHY'S MISTER PERFECT (£20, 01932 233824) is for. Another felt-tip product, this one is filled with make-up remover delivered via a precise nib, so you can neat up and square off the line to perfection.

Keep it simple and add no more than a slash of red lipstick. RIMMEL'S KATE MATTE LIPSTICK IN 'KISS OF LIFE' (£5.49, rimmelondon.co.uk) has a soft, matt texture that keeps the look modern. ●

I-SPIED

Anna Murphy, Stella editor

'For screen-siren glamour at bath-time I favour Omorovicza's Gold Sugar Scrub. Yes, it's as luxurious as it sounds, but also practical: it leaves your skin as soft as Jean Harlow's sheets.' £57; omorovicza.com

BEAUTY SPOT

ACID REIGNS

'After your skin has been exposed to UV rays, ensure you nurture and rehydrate it with cleansing milks containing hyaluronic acid. This will boost moisture levels intensely and also means your moisturiser will work more effectively'
