

BRIT HITS

Fly the flag this St George's Day with Britain's brightest and best skincare and make-up brands

ILLAMASQUA

Visionary make-up artist Alex Box is the driving force behind this edgy new cosmetics brand.

● My fave shade Cream Eye Shadow in Hunger (1, £15, illamasqua.com) doubles up as a soft golden highlighter.

LUSH

A one-stop deli for your skin, Lush boasts a fab range of super-fresh beauty boosters.

● Best boost The Sacred Truth (2, £6.45, lush.co.uk) is a reviving mask that really gives skin a lift.

SARAH CHAPMAN LONDON SKINESIS

With 18 years of skincare experience, Sarah packs her products with anti-ageing ingredients.

● I love Dynamic Defence Anti-ageing Day Cream SPF15 (3, £42, skinesis.com), which is great for dry skin.

BARRY M

Just the thing if you want to experiment with colour but you're on a budget.

● Hot hue Pink Flamingo Nail Paint (4, £2.95, barrym.com) is perfect for tanned toes.

NEAL'S YARD REMEDIES

Their yummy beauty products are created by hand at the Neal's Yard eco factory and physic garden in Dorset.

● Firm favourite Wild Rose Beauty Elixir (5, £42.50, tel: 0845 262 3145) repairs, firms and smooths skin.

JO MALONE

Twenty years ago Jo reinvented the facial; today the brand is a household name, with world-famous fragrances and luxury beauty products.

● Prize buy Avocado Cleansing Milk (6, £30, jomalone.co.uk) is ultra soothing and gentle.

LIZ EARLE NATURALLY ACTIVE SKINCARE

Former beauty editor Liz really understands skincare and her polished line uses natural ingredients.

● Dream clean Cleanse & Polish Hot Cloth Cleanser (7, £13 for starter pump and two muslin cloths, lizearle.com) leaves skin clean and soft.

No7

Now celebrating its 75th birthday, No7 still offers fabulous choice and value.

● Primer choice Shine Free Make-Up Base (8, £10.25, from Boots) is great for oily skin.

Home-grown beauty
Kate Moss

E-mail Jemma at jemma@you.co.uk