SHINING STARS

Matching your handbag to your shoes is so 1990s. But your lipstick to your nail varnish? Now that we approve of. Even the queen of the no-make-up purists, Tilda Swinton, is rocking the look in these shots from the new Pomellato jewellery campaign. Dare to take it one step further? Match your jewellery to your nails and lips. Trust us on this one.

CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

ALISON LOEHNIS, MANAGING DIRECTOR, NET-A-PORTER

"This removes all traces of make-up and feels fabulous. It's an indispensable part of my daily beauty regime"

Skinesis Ultimate Cleanse, £40 for 100ml, by Sarah Chapman

WHITEN UP

Bright pearly whites are a must these days – even Ronnie Wood has them. Get yourself to the London Lingual Orthodontic Clinic for a Proply-Jet cleanse – high-power jets packed with baking soda to leave toothie pegs sparkling. £95; londonlingualbraces.com

YOU'RE HOW OLD?

Lying about your age is still the best anti-ageing trick. Until someone let's out the truth. But is it ever bad enough for you to sue? The actress Huong Hoang, 41, thought so. She filed a lawsuit against IMDB for revealing hers, but lost her case. So now we all know.
