SOPHY AND KATE

I ♥ KATE

"I work with Ms Moss a lot, and I recently went to the launch of her Rimmel London nail polish range at Café Royal in London's Piccadilly. We discussed the inspiration behind the shades, as well as her nail wardrobe over the years. We ate cupcakes with rock 'n' roll decorations while Kate taught me how to pose for the camera."

ROSE BYRNE

LILY AND HER LEGO CLUTCH

"I popped over to Lily Cooper's house the other day to paint her nails for a big event. She showed me the Chanel Lego clutch that she was going to take, so I created a graphic design of blue, orange and black on a white background [below right]. The paps went wild for her nails – always very exciting for me."
